Program Descriptions

Choose Your Life

Our program for upper elementary students addresses bullying prevention. Key messages in the program are drawn from the evidence-based programs Olweus Bully Proofing and Stop! Bullying Now.

The Amazing Food Detective

An interactive program for lower elementary students, helping them to investigate clues to making responsible choices about their nutrition and physical activity.

Health Team Four

A partnership between the Educational Theatre Program and the Theatre Department at Metro State College of Denver allows the college students to present this program as peer educators and role models for healthy behaviors, while inspiring elementary students to think about opportunities for higher education. A rare combination of performance and partnership, this program has limited touring availability.
